

PENRITH AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

GUARDIANS OF EDEN TRUST – Farming Initiative Bursary

This Trust has been set up by the Penrith Agricultural Society from the proceeds of the sale of the book about farming in Eden - “Guardians of Eden”.

The Trust will award a bursaries to young people for developmental agricultural activity and initiatives.

Rules for Awards

1. Areas of agricultural activity and initiatives
 - Promotion of Agricultural Produce and Skills
 - Agricultural inventions and innovations
 - Travel to see other agricultural practices
 - Links to other areas in relation to agriculture
2. Nominees should be 40 or under in age on the date of the application
3. Nominees should live in the Eden District Council area
4. Applications will be reviewed by the Trustee when applications received.
5. Applications should be supported by two references – one being a professional – eg bank manager, accountant or solicitor
6. The level of Awards will be up to a maximum of £500
7. The Awards will be made during the year once agreed by the Trustees
8. Successful applicants should give a report on their agricultural work and activity to the Trustees which
 - will illustrate what they have been doing and
 - can be shown at subsequent Penrith Shows and in promotional material
9. The Trustees have the final say in the Awards

PENRITH AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

GUARDIANS OF EDEN TRUST– Farming Initiative Bursary

Nominee for Award
Address

Telephone
Signature

Referee’s Name
Address

Telephone

Signature

Detail should be included on a separate sheet agricultural work and activities for which Award is nominated.

Nominations for the Award should be sent to with the attached slip to Ron Kenyon, Saint and Co., Poets Walk, Penrith, CA11 7HJ - Telephone 01768 865189